

The proposed easing of multiple broadcast organization ownership rules is not in the best interest of the general public. It can be expected to further dilute the diversity and independence of programming, which has already been so seriously eroded. The Commission's support of this proposal makes me seriously wonder whether the Commission is serving the people or only the owners whom they are supposed to be regulating. Please do not further weaken the multiple ownership restrictions. Thank you.